Puppyviewer.com

Our mission at Puppyviewer is to educate and enable prospective purebred dog owners and to support ethical breeders through a social media platform.

Puppyviewer is designed by veterinarian Sharon French. In this day and age all research seems to start online. Our goal is to educate the public about what is really involved in finding and owning a purebred dog before anyone visits or even considers buying a puppy. We want the public to know about the passion and dedication that ethical breeders have. Puppyviewer offers breeders a venue where they can showcase their kennels and their puppies at no charge on a site dedicated to the purebred canine. Service providers such as groomers, trainers and veterinarians can also showcase their businesses on Puppyviewer.
