NORTHAMPTON, PENNSYLVANIA STANDARD POODLE WINS NON-SPORTING GROUP AT 144TH ANNUAL WESTMINSTER KENNEL CLUB DOG SHOW IN NEW YORK CITY

NEW YORK – The Standard Poodle “Siba” of Northampton, Pennsylvania, handled by Chrystal Clas for owners Connie Unger and William Lee, won the Non-Sporting Group under Judge Allen Odom at the 144th Annual Westminster Kennel Club Dog Show in New York City on February 10, 2020.

Siba, a 4-year-old female, officially known as GCHP Stone Run Afternoon Tea, bred by Connie Unger, took top honors in a field of 21 Best of Breed winners entered, comprising the Non-Sporting Group. Westminster reached its conformation entry limit of 2,500 dogs, with three days of Best of Breed competition on Feb. 9-11 held at Pier 94, and Group and Best in Show competition held at Madison Square Garden.

“Winning the Non-Sporting Group at the Garden is an impressive achievement,” said Westminster Kennel Club Director of Communications Gail Miller Bisher.

“Congratulations to Siba and her devoted breeder, owners, and handler.”

Selected highlights of the Best of Breed competitors were featured live on FS2 on Feb. 10-11. For full Non-Sporting Group results and video visit www.westminsterkennelclub.org. All Westminster Week events are presented by Purina Pro Plan.

The Westminster Kennel Club, established in 1877, is America's oldest organization dedicated to the sport of purebred dogs. Westminster's influence has been felt for more than a century through its famous all-breed, benched dog show held annually in New York City. Each year, 205 dog breeds and varieties — highlighting preservation breeders and purpose-bred dogs — are eligible to compete in the dog show at Pier 94. Best of Breed winners advance to the Group and Best in Show competitions at Madison Square Garden. America's Dog Show has expanded into Westminster Week, which includes the Masters Agility Championship at Westminster and the Masters Obedience Championship at Westminster, both held at Pier 94. Nearly 3,000 dogs entered from around the world compete in these events, making Westminster Week like no other. *Westminster.
